COUNTY LITERARY CONTEST

The result of the county literary contest held last Friday night was as follows: Readings at North Lima: Gladys Morgan, Science Hill, first; Anna Talbot, Damascus, second; Henry Brown, Austintown, third. Orations at Lowellville: James Naylor, Sebring, first; Wallace Heiser, Berlin Center, second; Robert Williams, Boardman, third. Original stories at Canfield: Nancy Murphy Sebring, first; Mildred Geyer, North Lima, second; Dorothy Gilbert, Damascus, third. Essays at Coitsville Center: Mary Banks, Damascus, first; Harold James, Poland, second; Helen Ripley, Boardman, third.

Winner of first place in each of the contests carried a pennant back to the high school represented. The first place counted five points; second three; third one. The high school receiving the largest number of points got the county pennant. This gives Sebring 10; Damascus nine, Science Hill five; North Lima three, Poland, three; Berlin Center, three; Boardman two; Austintown, one.

BURTON FAVORS LEAGUE

New York, March 10—A plea for creation of a League of Nations and a demand that Germany be compelled to pay an indemnity to the limit of her power in partial reparation for "the most frightful crime of all history" were made by Theodore E. Burton, former United States Senator from Ohio, in an address here tonight at a meeting of the Canfield Club of New York.

Mr. Burton said that although George Washington had advised against entangling alliances, times had been so changed by the development of communication facilities that countries today are closer together than were the colonies of George Washington's day. He insisted that a League of Nations was needed to keep the peace of the world.

"There are some Senators in Washington," he said, "who disagree with Mr. Wilson and believe that there should be a treaty of peace first and a League of Nations afterward. I do not agree with that. This is no time for partisan politics; it is the time for all men here to be Americans."

COOPER CRITICISES SENATORS

Youngstown, March 7—Congressman John G. Cooper, republican, of this city, who returned Thursday from Washington, emphatically expressed disapproval of the senate filibuster and announced that personally he would support President Wilson in his efforts to obtain a league of nations. "I think that it is the way people at large feel and I, too," he said, "there is no doubt in my mind that the action of certain senators in filibustering and holding up the important supply bills was a deliberate attempt on their part to obstruct the president and make it difficult for our government institutions to function. "I am indeed sorry that some of the republican senators could not be big enough to cast party politics aside and give to the president the support of which he is deserving at this critical time in the nation's history. "The action of the three republican senators who were the principal actors in the filibuster was disgusting in the extreme, and should be resented by the people."

LONGWORTH EXPRESSES HIMSELF

Washington, March 7—Representative Nicholas Longworth of Ohio in a formal statement issued last night said disaster ahead for the republican party as the result of the refusal of the republican caucus to put into effect any of the reforms in the organization of the new house of representatives promised in advance of the caucus. The Ohio member sees a repudiation of pledges to the people made in the last election. In standing by the minority rule the republican organization has settled leadership in both branches of the new congress will be solidly in the hands of dyed-in-the-wool stand-patters. The organization line-up now places control exclusively in the hands of Pennsylvania and Massachusetts.

A Friend Recommended Them

J. N. Tobill, clerk Lottis Hotel, Evansville, Ind., writes: "For six weeks I suffered constantly with pains in the muscles of my thigh. Upon recommendation of a friend, I tried Foley Kidney Pills and began to get relief almost immediately. They stop backache, rheumatic pains, soreness and stiffness. Sold everywhere—advise."

A Timely Suggestion

The next time you have a cough or cold try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is pleasant to take and you are sure to be pleased with the relief which it affords. This remedy has a wide reputation for its cures of coughs and colds—advise.

Any wife should be happy on an income of $5,000 a year, especially if she is spending $6,000.

When General Pershing was knighted it's an even bet that he was also blazed.

DAMASCUS

March 12—Some days ago the parents of Sergeant Russell Yoder received a message from the war department announcing the death by drowning of their son in France. No particulars were given and a letter written to Mr. and Mrs. Will Gilbert by their son Raymond told of the sad accident Feb. 7th. Yoder and a medical man, attached to Co. K had attempted to cross the Sarthe river which was in flood and the boat was overturned in the high, swift water and the chunks of ice floating about prevented Yoder swimming to shore. No trace of his body had been found when this letter was written, Feb. 14th.

The grade schools of the village gave an excellent program in the Friends' Yearly Meeting House last Thursday evening. The performances were of a varied character, music, recitations, dialogues and drills and everything went off without a hitch. To the teachers, as well as pupils, much credit is due and we hope for a repetition some day.

Mr. and Mrs. V. M. Chambers are visiting their son and family in Chicago this week. Frank Pennington of New York City and Charles of Decatur, Ill., are visiting their parents in Damascus.

Mrs. Esther Hildebrand celebrated her 86th birthday Saturday. Many friends called to offer congratulations during the afternoon. Miss Anna Talbot of Canton spent Sunday with her brother, Ernest Heston, and family.

Mrs. I. G. Park is reported ill. Misses Helen Gilbert and Blanche Stanley spent Saturday and Sunday in Pittsburgh with friends. Albert French of the A. E. F. Co. K. has arrived at Camp Mead from overseas.

Born to Rev. and Mrs. W. S. Smith, a daughter at St. Luke's Hospital, Cleveland, March 8th. Damascus came out second in the county literary contest Friday night, losing first place to Sebring by just one point. Miss Mary French won first at Coitsville Center, in the Essays; Miss Anna Talbot second at North Lima, in the Readings; and Miss Dorothy Gilbert third at Canfield in the Short Stories. We're proud of this record, however, and hope to beat it next year.

Supt. and Mrs. R. L. Drubel attended the contest at North Lima Friday evening and went from there to Petersburg for the weekend, visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Long.

The Civic Improvement Association of Damascus meets Wednesday evening in the high school. Jerome Hull, county superintendent of school, will deliver a lecture and some important business is to come before the club. Two basketball games with Berlin Center boys and girl teams will follow this meeting.

The Magazine Club entertains their husbands at a St. Patrick's party Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Thos. Primm. Mrs. Drubel is in charge of the evening's festivities.

The W. C. T. U. meets with Mrs. Fred Israel Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

LOCUST GROVE

March 12—E. I. Roller was in Alliance Monday. Henry Calvin and wife called on Gill Hewitt family in Island the first of the week.

F. W. Calvin was in Leetonia Monday. P. D. Calvin called on Wm. Feicht in Greenford, Sunday. Mrs. Pearl Weston of Leetonia called on her parents, J. D. Feicht and wife, Saturday.

Several ladies met with Mrs. Mary Roller Monday and finished sewing for the Red Cross, that will be turned in to Mahoning Chapter at Youngstown. Anthony Less and Chas. Feicht were in Salem Monday.

G. O. Calvin is having his hay baled. Quite a number from here were in Youngstown the last week to see "Bringing Up Father."

Charles Feicht, who received his honorable discharge from the army in February, and has been visiting relatives and friends in Iowa, returned here with his wife last Thursday and expect to make this their future home. Charles was one of the survivors of the Ticonderoga that was sunk by a German submarine in September.

Oscar Calvin and wife of Youngstown called on John Crumbaker and family Sunday afternoon. H. C. Coy and wife of Salem called on relatives here Saturday evening. Chalmers Zimmerman of Franklin Square spent Sunday at E. N. Beardsley's.

Owen Charlton of Greenford called on P. D. Calvin, Tuesday.

SALEM

Eight robbers, six of them masked, visited the home of Ed Elia, three miles north of the city, about midnight Monday and secured $715 from Elia and his cousin. The men cut the telephone wires before pulling the job and made their getaway before Salem officers could reach the Elia home.

Plans are being made to give our soldier boys a warm welcome when they return home in April. H. S. Rogers has been elected exalted ruler of the local lodge of Elks. John Hole has arrived from overseas and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hole, expect him to reach home before long.

Mrs. Luella Hendricks, aged 30, died last Thursday of pneumonia. She was a daughter of S. C. Callahan and was born and reared in this city. Wm. Green, 64, died Friday of heart disease.

NORTH LIMA

The revival meeting in progress in the Evangelical church for almost three weeks conducted by the pastor, Rev. J. E. Hill and Evangelist Rev. Floyd W. Dick closed this week. Rev. Dick preached his last sermon Wednesday night to a full house on "The Second Coming of Christ." The meetings were largely attended and a good spirit was manifested and as the truth was brought from God's word it was sinned at sinners in and out of the church. Rev. Dick is a southern preacher and preaches the truth in the good old southern style. Repentance and Reformation.

May the blessings of God rest upon these meetings and as the precious seed has been sown it will produce a glorious, bountiful harvest.

ROME GIVES U. S. FAMOUS PALACE

Bankers Purchase Historic Home to House All American Organizations.

TOPROMOTECLOSERELATIONS

Will Be Permanent Headquarters for Representatives Sent to Italy by American Business and Financial Institutions.

Rome.—Thanks to the generosity of Italian financial and commercial interests, the United States will have a house of its own in Rome.

The Palazzo Salviati, one of the famous group of historic family palaces that line the Corso Umberto, formerly the Flaminian way, has just been purchased by the big banking interests of Italy, rechristened "La Casa dell'America" or "The American House," and placed at the disposal of all societies, organizations and movements that have for their object the furthering of commercial, financial, social and industrial relations between the United States and Italy.

Banks Provide Money. The project was planned by Minister of Provisions Crespi, who through his contact with American Food Administrator Hoover, became convinced of the great mutual benefit to be derived by Italy and America through closer relations. The money for the purchase of the palace was put up by the leading banking institutions of Italy.

The Salviati palace, which is near the entrance of the Corso Umberto into Piazza Venezia, or where the Flaminian way formerly led up to the Capitoline hill, is surrounded by the other equally historic palaces of the Odescalchi and Doria families. Its interior furnishings and decorations will be kept intact as far as possible.

A Permanent Headquarters. The first floor of the palace will be occupied by the central headquarters of the Italian-American league, of which Senator Ruffini is president and which has for its object promoting every possible relation between the American and Italian peoples. The second floor will be given over to the offices of financial organizations that are especially interested in Italian and American stocks and bonds.

Still other portions of the palace will be given over to the societies and organizations promoting interests along special lines between the United States and Italy.

In the future American manufacturing, business and financial institutions sending representatives to Italy to establish relations will find permanent headquarters at the American house and every facility necessary to enable them to attain their ends.

SERVES 7 YEARS FOR $500

New York Youth, Nineteen Years of Age, Has Committed Twenty-Five Burglaries.

New York.—To get less than $500 in cash through law-breaking activities has cost Stephen Leggett, nineteen years old, seven years in reformatory and reformatories, but he is not sure that he made a bad bargain. Leggett admitted he had committed 25 burglaries and robberies.

"You seem to be proud," said Judge Humphrey, "of the fact that you have done something that the average person does not do. How long have you been in jail?"

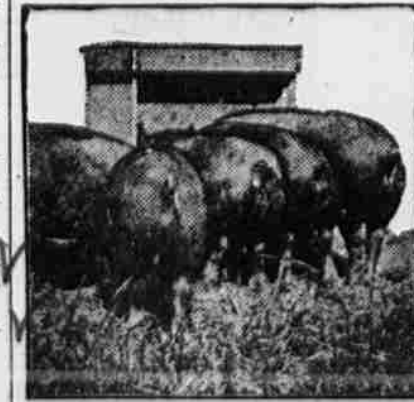

"Counting the time that I was in the reformatory and the reformatory, it is seven years," answered the boy. "How much do you think your career in crime has netted you?"

"Well, between $400 and $500 in cash."

SELF-FEEDERS HELP RAISERS

Campaign in Maine Resulted in Securing 15 Per Cent Increase Over 1917 Production.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.) An increased pork-production campaign carried on by county agents and farm bureaus in Maine has resulted in a 15 per cent increase over last year in the number of hogs raised. Previous to 1917 self-feeders for hogs had been used on a small scale, but had proved unquestionably successful. The results showed that farmers with self-feeders kept more hogs than they could otherwise. This suggested to the county agents that the self-feeder be made the basis of a campaign for more pork. Building "bees" or demonstrations were held by agents, at which self-feeders were constructed with the help of the farmers attending the meetings, and instructions given for their use, particular emphasis being placed upon their advantage in connection with pasturing hogs. As a result of the campaign, 745 additional self-feeders are now reported in use and 2,000 more hogs are being raised with them.

The best family trees may get all cut up.

CARE OF THE HAIR

Alcohol, Orris Powder and Quick Water Shampoo.

Treatments That May Obviate the Annoying Inability to Obtain a Well-Coiled Head.

There are times when a woman feels that she just can't go another day without shampooing her hair, yet she simply hasn't the time or the inclination to go through the usual process. It may be, too, that she is unexpectedly called upon to attend a function at which a well-coiled head is an absolute necessity, and she knows that her hair simply will not go up properly without a cleansing process of some sort.

Also, if the hair is to be dressed immediately after the shampoo the rigorous soap shampoo can hardly be indulged in, for scarcely a woman but voices the complaint, "Oh, I've washed my hair and I can't do anything with it!" The question is, then, to hurriedly cleanse and fluff the hair with the least inconvenience. There are three ways, notes an authority, in which this can be done.

The alcohol method is excellent. First brush the scalp and hair thoroughly with a clean brush. Get all the dust and dandruff possible out of the hair and then rub the scalp with alcohol and wipe the thick strands of the hair with a clean cloth. This will at the same time remove dirt and oil. If the hair is put on curlers immediately after this treatment a good curl will result in a short time. Wet the hair well with alcohol for curling; it dries much faster than would water. Some women use a delicate toilet water for preparing the hair for curlers.

The second is the orris powder method. Sift it well through the scalp and hair and let it remain for 15 minutes or longer, so that it will absorb the oil. Then brush it out and the dust will come with it. The powder will fluff the hair as well as cleanse it. Do not wet the hair for curling or it will become sticky.

The third method is the quick water shampoo. It is the removal of the soap which takes so much pains and time. For an emergency you will find that dousing the head in hot water and then in cold, the latter to close the pores, rubbing it a little and entirely omitting soap, will put the hair in condition for dressing. Hair thus dipped in clear water will dry much more quickly than when given the regulation soap shampoo. Of course, this eliminates some of the oil and adds a gloss to the hair.

HANGINGS KEEP HOUSE WARM

Heavy Curtains an Effective Assistant in Cold Weather—Moist Air Easier Than Dry to Heat.

Several things besides coal will help to keep the house comfortable. Windows need not be stuffed all around with cotton or old newspapers. Storm doors and windows will aid materially in keeping out cold; so will heavy hangings that may be drawn across bay window spaces and other drafty places.

In all English country houses these heavy curtains are a feature of winter furnishings; they are pushed back during the day and drawn closely at night when the family gathers about the sitting room fire.

One gas jet, burning steadily, will raise the temperature of a room five degrees—and five degrees count when your thermometer registers below 60!

Spraying the rooms often with water in an atomizer helps, too, for moist air is easier to heat than dry air.

Her Answer
A man met an elderly maiden in a nearby town. On his return home he wrote, asking her to marry him and requesting an answer by telegraph. On receiving the letter the lady rushed to the telegraph office.
"How much does it cost to send a telegram?" she demanded.
"Twenty five cents for ten words," answered the operator.
This was the answer her suitor received: "Yes, Yes, Yes, Yes, Yes, Yes, Yes, Yes, Yes."
